

Nuno Almeida Alves

Aged 60, Mr. Nuno Alves holds a degree in Naval Architecture and Marine Engineering (1980) and a Master in Business Administration (1985) by the University of Michigan.

In 1988, he joined the Planning and Strategy Department of Millennium BCP and in 1990 became an Associate Manager of the bank's Financial Investments Division. In 1991, he was appointed Investor Relations Officer for the Group and in 1994 joined the Retail network as Coordinating Manager.

In 1996, Mr. Nuno Alves became Head of the Capital Markets Division of Millennium BCP Investimento and, in 1997, Co-Head of the bank's Investment Banking Division. In 1999, he was appointed Chairman and CEO of CISF Dealer, the brokerage arm of Millennium BCP Investimento. In 2000, Mr. Nuno Alves became General Manager of Millennium BCP and acted as an Executive Board Member of Millennium BCP Investimento, responsible for BCP Group Treasury and Capital Markets

In March 2006 he was appointed EDP's (Energias de Portugal) Chief Financial Officer position he held through April 2018. During his tenure as EDP's CFO he was a Board member of EDP's main subsidiaries, EDPR (Renewables), EDP Brasil and EDP Spain.