

Millennium bcp supports the 1st Banking joint Project of Financial Education

Millennium bcp participated in the development of the new financial information portal, as a participant in the working group on financial literacy of Associação Portuguesa de Bancos (APB), and that results in the first joint project of the Portuguese banking sector specializing in financial education.

The portal “Boas Práticas, Boas Contas” (BPBC), in the form of site, is a project of educational nature that assumes the commitment to give citizens useful information and accessible banking services, through case studies, illustration and realistic, that resemble real life situations of many families and with which people can identify.
