

Millennium gives art works

Millennium bcp donated 10 works from its private artistic collection, including prints and serigraphs mostly of Portuguese artists, to the the Ronald McDonald Foundation.

The official ceremony took place at the premises of the Ronald McDonald Foundation, with the presence of Fernando Nogueira of the Millennium bcp Foundation and João Sá Nogueira of the Ronald McDonald Foundation.

João Sá Nogueira, during the ceremony, said that the works received from Millennium bcp Foundation are a reflection of its social responsibility policy and the engagement with local communities.
